

What a Sight! A Stalactite!

Stalactites form in wet caves and are made of limestone. They look like icicles that hang from the roofs of caves. Stalagmites grow upward from the cave floors.

Draw a path to get Ann and Ed out of the limestone cave.

